125 Years Ago -- 1838

April 21 Ship Gideon Barstow ar from N. Bedford, towed around by steamboat.

April 26 Sch. Emblem of Barrington ar, sld the 29th.

May 4 The whale brig Mattapoisett sailed this morning, smart gale with rain.

May 8 Elisha Dexter's house took fire.

May 14 One of our shipbuilders has failed (writes Dr. Robbins). A worthy man and a member of the church.

May 19 Visited Mr. E. Cannon, Jr. who has failed. He is very deeply afflicted.

This shipbuilder was Ebenezer Cannon 3rd (or 5th, depending on when you start to count). He was the fifth Ebenezer Cannon in a row, but the third to live in Mattapoisett. His grandfather had arrived in the village prior to the Revolution, buying land at Cannonville (named for this family), engaging in maritime pursuits and serving in the army during the war. One of his sons, Ebenezer, Jr., purchased the present Long Wharf property in the 1790's, building small merchant vessels and engaging in the coastwise trade. The property was purchased by the Mattapoisett Wharf Company in 1834.

In that year the grandson, Ebenezer Cannon, 3rd, as above, started up a yard in Cannonville. He started off by building two ships at once and launched them on successive days, as Dr. Robbins had recorded (1834):

May 20 Saw the launch of a fine ship--the first from Mr. Cannon's new yard.

May 21 Saw another ship launched in fine state from Mr. Cannon's yard.

For the next few seasons the yard built a couple of ships a year, mostly for the Nantucket whaling fleet. But 1837-38 were Great Depression Years--money panic, banks closing, loans called, business failures, widespread unemployment, etc., and the Cannon Yard at Cannonville was one of the casualties. It never reopened.

MILKING OF THE COW

To the Editor:

Nowadays the news is full of talk about the various "isms" common in politics. Many persons are confused as to the exact shade of meaning in the various "isms," so the following will help them to understand clearly the differences.

Capitalism: You have two cows. You sell one and buy a bull.

Socialism: You have two cows. The government makes you give one of them to a stranger.

Communism: You have two cows. The government takes both and shoots you.

New Frontierism: You have two cows. The government buys both with borrowed money, ships one out west to help stock an experimental federal dairy farm in the desert, hires two men to milk the other and then lets the milk spoil.

R. J. Whittier

Osterville.

The above letter is reprinted from the Boston Herald by permission of the writer.

WOMAN'S CLUB BANQUET

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club will hold their annual banquet and meeting Tuesday, May 21st, at the Harbor Beach Lodge at 6:30 P.M. A buffet dinner will precede the business meeting. Election of officers will be held. Reservations must be made by Thursday, May 16th, with Miss Edith Peterson, Peases Point, corresponding secretary.

WHIRL OF ACTIVITY FOR LOCAL BEAUTY

Future Miss New Bedfords take note-- There are few dull moments in the life of Carol Ann Tripp, who was named Miss New Bedford on the 20th of April. If you plan to follow in Carol's footsteps, you'd better be energetic as well as talented and attractive. Since being crowned she has resumed dancing lessons, posed for photos for the State's Pageant Program, attended a state briefing in Taunton, been a guest at the Miss Fall River and Miss Attleboro Pageants and has begun shopping for her wardrobe to be used for the state competition. Part of her prize as Miss New Bedford is a $1,000 wardrobe and countless other things.

On May 7th Carol was the guest of honor at the Bourne Chamber of Commerce banquet which was held at the Bourne Mill. A presentation was made to honor her selection as Miss New Bedford. She is the first Cape girl to win the contest.

STATE GRANGE SQUANTUM DAY

Every Spring, Indians in the Bay Colony area showed their appreciation of their survival through the long, cold winter by inviting friends, neighbors, enemies, and white settlers to a picnic or "Squantum". Among the colorful ceremonies, dances and festivities was the passing of the peace pipe. In perpetuation of this tradition, the Massachusetts State Grange invites you to Grange Squantum Day at Old Sturbridge Village, New England's leading living museum, at Sturbridge, Massachusetts. The date, Saturday, May 25, 1963, from 9:30

Dear friends,
If we chose, we could decide today not to add anything to our Funeral Service equipment for the next ten years.
But at the end of those ten years we know we would be hopelessly behind the times.
The type of service we provide requires new equipment constantly---much more, we are sure, than the public realizes. We regard this, however, as a part of our obligation to this community.
Respectfully,
Carl C Cornwell

Grange Squantum Day is for the benefit of the Grange Arthritis Research Project at the Boston University Medical Center where Dr. Francis R. Comerford, Grange Research Fellow, is making electron microscopy studies of tissue cells from victims of arthritis. Ticket sales are credited to Subordinate Grange "Share" goals with special recognition for all Granges that exceed their two-year 200% goal that day.

At Old Sturbridge Village you will see the re-created history of a New England country town with over 35 buildings dating from as old as 1735 on 200 acres of meadow and woodland. Weaving and candle-making are only two of over a dozen old crafts demonstrated.

The Coinchaug Ancients of Middlefield and Durham, Conn. will march in their colorful costumes to the distinctive cadence of authentic Colonial martial music.

A large tent near the blacksmith shop in the meadow area at the special Grange entrance will be hospitality headquarters. Here also will be the Grange exhibits and contests with a special afternoon program from 2 to 4. Transportation from Grange headquarters to any part of the Village will be by horse-drawn "carry-alls."

SONGWRITER VISITS NEW BEDFORD

Mrs. Joseph Nunes of Mattapoisett recently had the pleasure of a phone conversation with a man from New Bedford and now of New York City who has been successful in songwriting.

This was brought about after seeing Mr. Paul Giasson appear in an interview on WTEV at 1:30 Friday on the Community Program.

Mrs. Nunes first spoke to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Giasson, who said he was surprised at the many friends who called and congratulated him after the appearance on TV.

Mr. Giasson and Mrs. Nunes' brother, Arthur Laronda, a former Standard Times Junior Artist, were companion graduates of New Bedford High School in 1939.

The first recognized song written by Mr. Giasson was "If you've forgotten me" in 1948 and recorded three years later. The type of music he writes is more for relaxing such as "For Young Lovers" and "Softly Softly".

Several of his songs have been recorded by the Melachrino Strings, and others are Anita Darium records, Joe Harmel and Baxter's Best.

Paul was in New Bedford last week-end for Mother's Day.
